World Book Day

Thank you for supporting all our reading events this week, including dressing up today - it has been lovely to see all of you who have been able to attend reading at the start of the day too. The Eco Council's book swap was very popular and enjoyed by a lot of children as you can see from the pictures below and overleaf.

Happy Birthday!

Recognition Awards for week beginning 3rd March 2025

| | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|
| Reception | Ezekiel Nancy | For his independent recording of a sentence in phonics and a number sentence in maths. For showing super focus and effort when completing the tasks she is set, but especially for her sentence writing. |
| Year 1 | Ronnie M All Year 1 | For being so helpful this week throughout all our class activities. For demonstrating super learning behaviours while we worked outside our classroom on Wednesday. Everyone achieved through the activities completed and found joy from being in the outdoors. |
| Year 2 | Milan Albert | For her kind and caring approach towards others. For his increasing confidence which is allowing him to share his lovely ideas with the class. |
| Year 3 | Spencer Arthur Harper | Both for their commitment towards each other in PE please. They have demonstrated all the skills taught in gymnastics and have produced some really thoughtful routines. For a huge improvement on her focus when working in class. |
| Year 4 | Benji Ted & Florence | For his consistent positive approach to learning, demonstrating dedication, enthusiasm, and a growth mindset in every challenge he faces. Both for their willingness to help others, always offering support, guidance, and kindness whenever needed. |
| Year 5 | Kairi Florence | For her excellent contributions around vocabulary used in our new text and identifying the effect that it has on the reader. For persevering to solve maths problems around percentages. |
| Year 6 | Callen | For writing a short description using appropriate vocabulary and creating the right atmosphere. |
| Librarians and Eco Council |  | A special mention to all the librarians and Eco-Council members, who have given up their own time and been responsible for organising and running the book swap at lunchtimes this week. The librarians have also made the suggestions for the World Book Day activities that have taken place this week. |
